

Stories to challenge bias and create belonging

Families All Matter Book Project

Curriculum Guide

A Project of

aMaze

Nurturing the Values of Family / Community / Diversity

Table of Contents

	page
A message from the authors	5
Preface by Louise Derman-Sparks	6

Introduction 7

● Overview of this Guide	8
● What is the Families All Matter Book Project?	9
● How the FAM Book Project works	10
● Purpose and Goals of the FAM Book Project	11
● U.S. Schools are Changing: Facts of the 21 st Century	12
● History of the FAM Book Project	14
● The FAM Book Project at the Pilot Site	16

Preliminaries 17

● Keys to a Successful Book Project	18
● Make a Site Plan for Your School	20
● Prepare the Materials	24
● Prepare the Reader	28

The Weekly Sessions 35

● Student Introduction Session: "What Makes a Family?"	36
● The Family Diversity Sessions	38
● The Closing Session: "What Did We Learn About Families?"	40

Wrap-up 45

● Final Evaluation	46
● How Can We Help You?	47

Family Diversity Themes

(Pages of each theme are numbered independently)

● Families Are Different	1-8
● Race/Ethnicity	1-12
● Divorce/Break-ups	1-10
● Lesbian and Gay Family Members	1-10
● Socioeconomics	1-9
● Immigration	1-9
● Adoption	1-7
● Disability	1-10
● Aging	1-8
● Religion	1-11

Appendix

Appendix page

● Educational Standards (Examples from Minneapolis and Minnesota)	2
● Policies: Nondiscrimination and Against Harassment and Violence (Examples from Minneapolis Public Schools)	5
● Division of Labor: Sharing responsibilities when using volunteer readers	6
● Reader Folder Contents	7
● The FAM Book Project Family Diversity Booklist	8
● Do-It-Yourself Book Box Construction	13
● Enrichment Activities	14
● FAM Puppet Script: "Can It Be Fixed-up?"	16
● Song: "Speak Up"	20

Reproducibles

Reproducibles page

● Parent Letter	2
● Ground Rules for Discussion	3
● Reflections on Session	4
● Final Evaluation	5